Prayer of Confession: Lord, we confess that we pretend to know, when in truth we still wonder. Forgive our pretenses, that we may open ourselves to unexpected teachers, to fresh ideas, to one another, and to You. Vulnerable Christ, You who lived in generous love, we confess that we have closed ourselves off; we have seen so much suffering that we stop looking, rather than see and respond to those in need. Forgive our neglect, that we may care for one another, and follow in the example You set for us. In Your Name, we pray. Amen. (Let us now have a moment of silence to offer our personal prayers of confession.)

Prayer:

Spirit of the living God - fall afresh on me

Spirit of the living God - fall afresh on me

Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me

Spirit of the living God - fall afresh on me

Apostle’s Creed: I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Offertory: Ushers will receive God’s tithes and our offerings.

In our passage today, James is restating that Old Testament truth not to judge by outward appearances. God looks at inside first, before He looks on outward appearances. In other words, God looks at your heart foremost. We all know that labels given by society can be very deceptive. We often say, "Don't judge a book by its cover." However, we all use labels, and we all make value judgments. James is telling us to look at Kingdom values, not this world's values.

TEACHING POINTS

Teaching Point 1: The teachings of Jesus clash with this world in how do we treat the poor and outcasts. God values all people, not just the beautiful, rich and well-dressed adored by society.

Teaching Point 2: Christ’s Kingdom ideals put the highest value on items like faith, honor, character, compassion, commitment, sacrifice, service and eternal life.

Teaching Point 3: The ground is level at the foot of the cross for everyone. We will all stand before God to give an account for ourselves at the End-Times judgment.

THIS WEEK’S MEMORY VERSE

“There will be no mercy for those who have not shown mercy to others. But if you have been merciful, God will be merciful when he judges you.” (James 2:13 NLT).

ACTION POINT

Christ is building His Kingdom here on earth as a New World Order. Through the shed blood of Christ and our faith in Him making Him our Lord, we are united in a common faith as Christ-followers. That faith is so powerful it can transcend any differences here today. This was James’ plea to the Christians in Jerusalem, and it is his plea to us today. In the New World Order given by Jesus, it is our joy and responsibility to undertake the tough jobs and to build a group of people where love, peace, justice and kindness rule the day instead of the values of this world of favoritism. Let us think like Jesus, and let us treat everyone with respect no matter who they are. Remember, we are all the same before the cross!
