Prayer of Confession: Our High Priest, Jesus Christ, knows all our weaknesses and can sympathize, because He was tested in every way we are, only without sinning. We have heard what was written about Jesus in Scripture: how He suffered and died, and then rose again from the dead on the third day. And how through His death and resurrection, the forgiveness of sin is now possible for all who repent. So let us boldly approach the throne of God, where we will find grace and mercy when we need it most. In Jesus' Name, we pray. Amen. (Let us now have a moment of silence to offer our personal prayers of confession.)

Prayer

Spirit of the Living God – fall fresh on me
Spirit of the Living God – fall fresh on me
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me
Spirit of the Living God – fall fresh on me

*Apostle's Creed: I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Offertory: Ushers will receive God's tithes and our offerings.

“Dealing With Suffering” Hebrews 4:12-5:10
Salem Presbyterian Church
October 11, 2015

Why do innocent people suffer? Many suffer grievously. Why? Our hearts break when we see little children stricken with awful diseases. Why do the elderly suffer? Some of you have seen one or both of your parents battle cancer or heart problems or Alzheimer's. Nothing they have done could ever merit such suffering. Of course, suffering doesn't have to be physical. Some of our deepest scars may never show on the surface.

TEACHING POINTS

Teaching Point 1: One very popular way of coping with suffering is to take it out on someone else. You can be nasty with other people, because "misery loves company." If you are suffering, you try to make yourself feel better by making someone else feel worse.

Teaching Point 2: Pain always occurs in life. Even Christ could not avoid pain and complete His mission and neither can we.

Teaching Point 3: Our suffering reminds us of our dependence on God. At an early stage in our lives, we think that we are in total control of things. In our minds, we are captains of our destiny. But suddenly life deviates out of our control.

THIS WEEK'S MEMORY VERSE

“Even though Jesus was God's Son, he learned obedience from the things he suffered.”
(Hebrews 5:8 NLT)

ACTION POINT

Remember, as Jesus was nailed to a cross, His back was raw from beatings. Jesus must have yearned for a way to move, to change positions, or redistribute his weight. But he couldn't. He was paralyzed by the six inch nails. God had felt the exact piercing sensations that racked His body. Yet, it is comforting to turn to Christ, and to know there a God who has felt the full array of human emotions that we have. Maybe this is what the writer of Hebrews meant when he said that Christ learned obedience through suffering. Suffering is a great teacher. It teaches us compassion for others. It teaches us dependence on God. During our suffering, we can pray to a God who understands what we are going through!
