Prayer of Confession:

Love is patient; for our quick-temperedness: Lord, have mercy.
 Love is kind; for our indifference towards others: Lord, have mercy.
 Love is not envious; for our petty jealousies: Lord, have mercy.
 Love is not boastful; for our pretentiousness: Lord, have mercy.
 Love is not arrogant; for our opinionated views: Lord, have mercy.
 Love does not insist on getting its own way; for our false sense of our own importance: Lord, have mercy.
 Love does not rejoice in wrong-doing; for our rejoicing in all the wrong things: Lord, have mercy.
May God show us mercy, forgive us our sins against love, and lead us to life everlasting. In Jesus' Name we pray. Amen. (Let us now have a moment of silence to offer our personal prayers of confession).

Sermon “The Way of Love” Rev. Thomas Emery

*Apostle's Creed: I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

“The Way of Love” 1 Corinthians 13:1-13
Salem Presbyterian Church
January 31, 2016

If you are not committed to living a lifestyle of love, you've missed the whole meaning of the Gospel. Let that sink in. You can do all that God commands, but if you are not committed to living a lifestyle showing love, you've missed the whole point of Christianity. Paul puts it this way in 1 Corinthians 13:13, “Three things will last forever—faith, hope, and love—and the greatest of these is love.” Your lifestyle is as important as what you believe. Remember that neither our faith nor our works alone qualify us for heaven. God's love saved us, and God wants us to love others.

TEACHING POINTS

POINT ONE – Sharing Christ's love is the central task of the Christian. People will know that we are followers of Jesus by the display of our love. We should be showing Christ's love in all our actions throughout the day.

POINT TWO – This love is an active love that seeks out people who need loving.

POINT THREE – You can do marvelous acts of devotion to Christ, but none of them matter if you let your life be taken over with resentment and hate.

THIS WEEK'S MEMORY VERSE

Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance (Luke 4:18-19 NLT).

ACTION POINT

Faithful Christians are committed to living a lifestyle of love. Paul warns us that we can get off track thinking we are honoring God, but you've missed the whole meaning of the Gospel if you are not loving. The greatest model of self-giving love is Jesus, Himself, going to the cross to pay for our sins. John 3:16 tells us, “For this is how God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.” God loved us and sacrificed his Son for the penalty for our sins, not for ours only, but for the sins of the whole world (1 John 4:10). “We love each other because he loved us first” (1 John 4:19). How do people know that we are Christians? It is shown by our love.
