Welcome & Prayer

Call to Worship                      Psalm 27    493

*Hymn                                      God Will Take Care of You    297

Prayer of Confession: Lord God, in Your Holy Word today, we hear that You ask us to come to You, and that more, You seek us out like a hen seeks out her chicks; You offer us the protection and the safety of Your strong wings. Lord, You desire to gather Your children together; yet we are not willing. We squander Your gifts, misuse our power, and turn away from Your love. We spend ourselves for what does not satisfy, and neglect those in sorrow and in need. Spare us Lord, and forgive us our sins, that we may turn from evil ways, and find shelter beneath Your wings. Help us, O God, to stop each day and to listen for Your call. We pray in Jesus' Name. Amen. (Let us now have a moment of silence to offer our personal prayers of confession).

“For Whom Do You Live?” Luke 13:31-35
Salem Presbyterian Church – Rev. Thomas Emery
February 21, 2016

Like a mother hen, Jesus' love is so consuming that He wants to sweep us up under His protective wings. There are others, namely Herod, in pursuit of Him, but Jesus is like a persistent mother. His love compels Him to pursue His flock with a passion. In answering Herod, Jesus demonstrates that He has work to finish in Galilee, sweeping a few more chicks under His wings, before He is headed to Jerusalem. In Jerusalem, He knows He will fly off from His chicks alone to draw God's judgment only to Himself so that death will take Him while sparing the chicks. He is protecting His children whom He loves with a mother hen's shielding passion. What an image!

TEACHING POINTS

POINT ONE – This second Sunday of Lent, take the time to realize where your life is headed. The cross lays bare your human heart and will reveal your inner person. Who lives in you – Christ or the false hopes of this world?

POINT TWO – Our Christian faith is the set of moral principles that guide our decisions and the lives we live. We must allow the love of God to direct our thoughts, guide our actions, and to rule our lives.

POINT THREE – But one thing Jesus will not do is make us love Him. He will not decree love nor control our human will. He can, but He is a gentleman and will not force us. Jesus went to the extreme of accepting the cross in the face of our sinfulness, and we must be as persistent as our Lord in the face of the world's indifference.

THIS WEEK'S MEMORY VERSE

<sup>34</sup> “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones God's messengers! How often I have wanted to gather your children together as a hen protects her chicks beneath her wings, but you wouldn't let me.” (Luke 13:34 NLT)

ACTION POINT

The church is the body of Christ. Through the church, the kingdom of God is on earth. The church is the last hope that the world will be saved. Because of this, the true Christian will continue to sit in the pew to worship to show their devotion to Christ. He will be at the church school to learn more of God's truth in the Bible to know how God wants us to conduct ourselves. He will continue to give his tithe, time and talents toward the work of the church because he knows her work is the work of God serving the world. The lost and the next generation need to be told the Good News of Christ. The Christian will continue to respect, love, and serve the church, no matter what the world thinks of the church. The true Christian will remain loyal to the church, because he believes in her. The church is of God.
