Rev. Thomas Emery
“Enter the King” Luke 19:28-44
Salem Presbyterian Church
March 20, 2016

Anonymity usually characterized Jesus’ ministry. Here, Jesus set a different tone. In entering into Jerusalem during Passover with over two and a half million visitors, Jesus in His foresight did not want people to say in the future that they would have worshipped Him if they only knew He was the Messiah. Before all, Jesus rode into Jerusalem declaring Himself as the Messiah. But, the Jews wanted a worldly King and not the Jesus, who was calling for them to give Him their hearts. The Jews primary need was not release from the Roman occupation but release from their sins before God. Jesus would rule in His glory one day. But now, He had to pay for the sins of the world. He called for repentance and not revolution. He wanted them to renounce this world run by Satan and to follow Him.

TEACHING POINTS

POINT ONE – *We need to be submissive to Christ.

POINT TWO – *We need to worship Christ with all our treasures. Jesus has every right to what is ultimately His.

POINT THREE – *We need to praise Him.

POINT FOUR - *We need to have faith in Christ.

THIS WEEK’S MEMORY VERSE

He [Jesus] replied, “If they kept quiet, the stones along the road would burst into cheers!” (Luke 19:40 NLT)

ACTION POINT

Since Jesus rode into Jerusalem that day, the issues have not changed. Some follow Him merely for what He can materially do for them as they think He will guarantee them prosperity. But, they will end up as disappointed as the Jews were in Jerusalem. On the other hand, Jesus calls us to renounce our sins and the love for this world. He wants us to take up our crosses and follow Him. He promises us that we will never be disappointed if we follow Him. Then, we will know Him as our personal God, who cares for us. Why not open our hearts to Him today?
