Prayer of Confession: O Lord, Isaiah reminds us that our prayer, fasting and pious ritual must be lived out in compassion and justice. When we forget the fast You desire, to do justice, and stand up for the powerless, Lord, have mercy. When we forget the prayer You love, to show compassion, and care for those in need, Christ, have mercy. When we forget the rituals You require, to create relationships of righteousness and peace, Lord have mercy. In the Name of Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen. (Take a moment of silent confession.)

Rev. Thomas Emery
“God’s Foolish Wisdom” Isaiah 58:1-12
Salem Presbyterian Church
February 5, 2017

Approximately 500 years before the birth of Christ, Judah had been living in exile in Babylon as captives by the conquering army of King Nebuchadnezzar. Just like Moses led the people from Egyptian bondage, so would God lead them out of Babylonian captivity. When the exiles arrived back home, what really surprised them is that rubble was everywhere including the temple grounds, and the people lived in poverty. During this transition period, God called His people not to make a public show of their generosity but to help one another secretly knowing that God will reward them. Just as then, as is now, we fall short of God’s demands of us.

TEACHING POINTS

Point 1 - Looking good in the eyes of others vs God's approval.

Point 2 - Show that you believe by your actions.

Point 3 - We are loved by God and need to show that love to others.

THIS WEEK’S MEMORY VERSE

<sup>3</sup> ‘We have fasted before you!’ they say. ‘Why aren’t you impressed? We have been very hard on ourselves, and you don’t even notice it!’ ‘I will tell you why!’ I respond. ‘It’s because you are fasting to please yourselves. Even while you fast, you keep oppressing your workers (Isaiah 58:3 NLT).

ACTION POINT

In Christ, God has gathered us hypocrites into his arms; God gives us the ability to change our hearts and to show His gifts to others. Closing the gap between belief and behavior is not something we will ever do in our human strength and wisdom, but in the power of God's Spirit all things are possible. The answer to wrongs in our world has come in Jesus Christ, who in reconciling us to God brings us to a place where we can be reconciled to one another. Only then shall "light break forth like the dawn, and righteousness shall go before you." Why not try to truly follow God’s commands to love one another? If you cannot, ask God to give you the strength to walk in His ways.
