Pastor: Rev. Thomas Emery Organist: LaDonna Allenbaugh

Prelude
Lighting the Candles
Welcome & Prayer

*Hymn: Blodwen Welsh Hymnal, 60

Call to Worship Psalm 51:1-12 509

Prayer of Confession: Compassionate One: like David, it is not easy for us to confront those deeds which do not please you. We do not see the gift of Your presence. We spend so much of our lives bemoaning the acts of others, that we have no time to look in the mirror and see our secret faces. Forgive us, Steadfast Love. Grace us with Your mercy, so we might be made whole. Touch our inner being and heal us, so we might know joy and gladness. Create new hearts within us, so they might beat as one, with each other, and with your Son, our Lord and Savior. We ask these things in Jesus' Name. (Let us now have a moment of silence to offer our personal prayers of confession).

Rev. Thomas Emery
“You Are the Man” 2 Samuel 11:26-12:13a
Salem Presbyterian Church
August 5, 2018

Nathan confronted David’s sin by the telling a story that David could relate. It was a simple story, as far as it goes, of two men one rich and one poor, and their flocks. The rich man had many flocks and herds, but the poor man had but one ewe. The little ewe had grown up with his children, eating at his table, as the family pet. Hungry guests came to see the rich man and, though he had large number of sheep to choose from, he instead goes and takes the poor man’s pet lamb. Upon hearing this, King David, the son of a shepherd, and once a shepherd boy himself—thought even now to be God’s shepherd for the people—rages against this rich man and declares with the full weight of the throne: “This man deserves death for what he’s done!” At which Nathan says to him: “You are the man.”

TEACHING POINTS

FIRST POINT – Power often has contempt for truth, because truth is the great challenge to power.

SECOND POINT – Celebrations of acceptance and confession can only honestly happen in “Christian community.”

THIRD POINT – God gives second chances. When we are made whole with God, we meet life with a clean heart and right spirit knowing that we can handle any obstacles in life with our loving God.

THIS WEEK’S KEY PASSAGE

Then Nathan said to David, “You are that man” (2 Samuel 12:7a NLT)!

ACTION POINT

“Never confess,” is the rule we receive from the world. We live in a culture of self-protection, which is the opposite of confession. Psalms 51 and 32 are indications of how well David learned the lessons about the horrific nature of sin, responsibility, and the need for, and the possibility of, repentance and forgiveness. Wholeness is found in letting go. It’s in the “letting go” of confession and the forgiveness, we’re offered in it, that we’re made whole again. It allows us to reconcile and to atone, that we become “at one” again, with ourselves, with God, and with our neighbor. For David, the consequences would come as they must, but he would meet them with a clean heart, and with a new and right spirit, knowing the God who had brought him this far, would continue to be there with him through it all. And thank God, the same is true for us.
