Prayer of Confession: Gracious Lord, you have blessed us with freedom—freedom to follow or to turn away; freedom to love or to hate; freedom to heal or to hurt. You ask only that we follow your ways, loving our neighbors as ourselves. In the midst of our turbulent lives, help us find teachers to show us the gifts you set within us. And help us claim these gifts today. For we ask this in Jesus' Name. Amen. (Please take a moment of silent confession)

Rev. Thomas Emery
“The Chariot of Fire” 2 Kings 2:1-14
Salem Presbyterian Church
June 30, 2019

Surprisingly, Elijah experienced defeat and depression after winning the Mount Carmel challenge of the one true God against the prophets of Baal. After his subsequent emotional low-point, Elijah was eventually restored to greatness in a way Elijah could have never imagined. Without dying, he was caught up to heaven in a whirlwind on “a chariot of fire.” None of us may expect to go that way to heaven, but all of us can learn some valuable lessons from Elijah’s homegoing. There are three things for us to see in our Scripture reading.

TEACHING POINTS

POINT ONE – We should make ourselves busy building God’s kingdom while on earth.

POINT TWO – We must keep our faith in the face of death.

POINT THREE – We should plan on leaving behind a legacy blessing.

THIS WEEK’S VERSE

¹¹ As they were walking along and talking, suddenly a chariot of fire appeared, drawn by horses of fire. It drove between the two men, separating them, and Elijah was carried by a whirlwind into heaven. ¹² Elisha saw it and cried out, “My father! My father! I see the chariots and charioteers of Israel!” And as they disappeared from sight, Elisha tore his clothes in distress (2 Kings 2:11-12 NLT).

ACTION POINT

The essence of Christian maturity comes with the realization that God, through his Son Jesus, has connected us to a life that is bigger than today. To be a mature Christian is to be committed to the idea that the most significant mission outreach program of the church is yet to happen as we follow God’s will. Elijah reappeared on the earth later the Mount of Transfiguration with Jesus. There with Moses, Elijah talked with Jesus while the disciples, in awe and fear, ran around offering to build shelters. What did Elijah and Jesus talk about on the Mount? Could it be that Elijah encouraged Jesus as He moved towards His impending self-sacrifice on the cross? This encore episode reminds us that God uses ordinary people like you and me and blesses them with a calling to share the Gospel. Why not now ask God how to be of service to Him?
