PASTOR'S THOUGHTS

¹³ Jesus replied, "Anyone who drinks this water will soon become thirsty again. ¹⁴ But those who drink the water I give will never be thirsty again. It becomes a fresh, bubbling spring within them, giving them eternal life" (John 4:13-14 NLT).

As we travel into a new year, let us take an appraisal of what really divinely satisfies us. Some of us are feeling spiritually dry from the religion that we are experiencing rather than the alive, invigorating, and fulfilling relationship with God through Jesus Christ.

Religion is a self-effort of trying to earn your way into heaven. It is "works" with hopes of the reward of getting into heaven. Unfortunately, it results only in apathy, failure, chronic guilt, bitterness, burn-out, and eternal separation from God. Has that been you?

In John 14:6, Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me." God's plan of your having a relationship with Him involved Jesus on the cross, paying the price for our sins and wrongdoings. You need to put all your trust and faith in Jesus rather than any religion or in the means of being made right with God by your efforts.

Ask Jesus to be the captain of your life; ask the Holy Spirit to help you turn away from your sins. Then accept His free gift of salvation and eternal life and receive the joy of having a right love relationship with God.

A joy-filled personal relationship is when you trust fully in Jesus and then live to please Him. You confess your sins, repent, and daily yield yourself to Him. The Holy Spirit does God's work in and through us, and the Holy Spirit controls and directs our lives. The result is the Galatians 5:22-23 Fruit of the Spirit of "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control."

The hymn, "In the Garden," summarizes this relationship alone with God. "And He walks with me, and He talks with me, And He tells me I am His own, And the joy we share as we tarry there, None other has ever known."

In the opening scripture about water, at the well, Jesus met a despised and rejected Samaritan woman with a "reputation." He gave her God's unconditional love. Afterward, she wanted to tell everyone that she met the Messiah. Jesus gave us the same mission to tell others; in doing so, you get the same living water and inner joy she did. It is the mission of all true Christians. Jesus ends His discussion with the woman in John 4:36:

The harvesters are paid good wages, and the fruit they harvest is people brought to eternal life. What joy awaits both the planter and the harvester alike!

Why not talk to God about Jesus, and once you accept Him, tell the world about this joyful offer of living water!

Just One Request

Dear Master for this coming year
Just one request I bring:
I do not pray for happiness,
Or any earthly thing—
I do not ask to understand
The way Thou ledest me,
But this I ask: Teach me to do
The thing that pleaseth Thee.
I want to know Thy guiding voice,
To walk with Thee each day.
Dear Master make me swift to hear
And ready to obey.
And thus the year I now begin
A happy year will be—
If I am seeking just to do
The thing that pleaseth Thee.

The Book of Philippians 4:4-17

"Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus" 4:4-7 NIV.

Paul talks about Joy again in the book of Philippians. It's that important! So, in what can be a bleak time in the midst of winter, let's rediscover how we can maintain our joy...

The need: Paul again talks to the Philippians about a common Christian struggle is maintaining a joyful heart. George Mueller says, "The first great and primary business...every day was to have my soul happy in the Lord." We don't always wake up ready to sing. When you read Christian biographies and even the Psalms of David, you'll actually be encouraged that some of our greatest heroes wrestled through seasons of dryness, despair and discouragement.

Causes: Many things can rob us of Joy. One of them is mentioned in verse 6 - anxiety! But doubt, loss of a loved one, work, illness, relational difficulties, and numerous other problems can cause Christians to lose their song.

The solution: Notice what Paul says about rejoicing. He doesn't say, "Rejoice when your circumstances are going well." He says, "Rejoice in the Lord always." Joy comes from our relationship with Jesus, not our circumstances. Paul is writing from prison. Some would call it a dungeon. But where does his Joy come from? It comes from the Lord Jesus Christ!

Most people think you get Joy when you get what you desire. But real Joy comes when you realize what you deserve. The realization of what you deserve (judgment) and what you've received instead (salvation) should lead you to great Joy. It's not about getting what you want; it's about being grateful for all that you have in Christ Jesus.

Remember Pharrell William's catchy song "Happy"? It made people clap and sing along and dance all over the world. It first appeared in the movie "Despicable Me 2". Interestingly, it plays when little Lucy gives the former supervillain Gru a kiss. When this reformed villain finds love, it makes him happy. That sounds like the Gospel! When formerly despicable characters like us are seized and changed by the love of Jesus, it should make us happy. In Philippians, the happiest man in Rome is in jail! What makes him rejoice? The good news of Christ rescuing him! When we consider what we deserve because of our despicable sin and what we have because of the redeeming love of God through Christ, that realization should give rise to Joy. Rejoice in the Lord - in the Savior and Lord, who loves to redeem and forgive despicable people!

Instruction: So, when and how long should we rejoice in the Lord? Paul tells us: "always." Certainly, there will be occasions when we're grieved and filled with sorrow, but even in those time, the Christian can say with Paul, "as grieving yet always rejoicing." (2 Cor 6:10). Paul doesn't teach that we should always be skipping around, totally detached from the real world. He teaches that even in hard times, the Christian can drink deeply from the well of salvation that produces Joy in the midst of struggle. You should always sing with Joy because of the Savior, even in times when you have to sing with tears pouring down your face.

Effect: What would happen if you and others in our church lived lives of constant rejoicing? Think of all the sins that are overcome by a heart that rejoices in the Lord always. This would conquer sins like anger, envy, gossip, discontentment, arrogance, stinginess, and complaining. These sins grow out of a heart that's not finding Joy in Christ. When we rejoice in the Lord while we serve the Lord, we honor Him. Our attitudes, as we serve the Lord, matter to Him. So, let's regularly reflect on how graciously the Lord has treated us, and may that lead us to live a life of Joy!

Pastor Tom's Christmas Morning Quiche

9" unbaked pie crust
1 C chopped broccoli
2 Tb butter
1 minced onion

- 1 tsp minced garlic
- 1 1/2 C chopped cooked meat (ham/sausage/bacon)
- 1 1/2 C shredded Swiss cheese
- 1 C evaporated milk
- 4 eggs, beaten
- 1/2 tsp ground black pepper
- 1 tsp paprika

Preheat oven to 350°F.
 Press pie crust into a 9" pie plate and prebake. Set aside.
 Cook broccoli. Set aside.
 Melt butter in a large saucepan over medium heat. Sauté onion and garlic in melted butter until slightly translucent (about 5 min.).
 Stir meat, broccoli into the onion mixture and transfer to pie crust.
 Beat cheese, milk, eggs and pepper together in a bowl; pour over meat mixture. Sprinkle paprika over entire quiche.
 Bake in preheated oven until a fork inserted into the center of the quiche comes out clean (about 30-45 min.).

(This can also be made crust-less by buttering a pie pan and pouring mixture into pan. Bake as above).
