PASTOR'S THOUGHTS

If God be our God, He will give us peace in trouble. When there is a storm without, He will make peace within. The world can create trouble in peace, but God can create peace in trouble. – Early 1600s persecuted Puritan Pastor Thomas Watson

Are we truly following Christ and making Christ our Lord and Savior? Perhaps, we need to examine our thoughts and actions. Most of us see joy as having nice stuff – a good family, health, pleasant houses, boats, the latest equipment, and stability and safety.

But the Biblical idea of joy is fully serving the Lord faithfully with our gifts, talents, and possessions.

Perhaps, we suffer in life so we will fall less in love with the earth, and more in love with God and His Kingdom. If we are serving God, we can have joy that this world does not understand.

The news reports tell us that the world is falling apart. On the other hand, the Bible tells us to not peer into the future with fear and foreboding, but to gaze forward with anticipation. Things are going to get better—much better, but not as the world values things!

When we look out our window, what do we see? Our planet is wrought with fears of pandemics, wars, riots, earthquakes, and global economic meltdowns. Know that the worst is yet to come for planet earth, and the Bible tells us that there is a future seven-year horrible horrible period known as the Tribulation discussed in Revelation.

But wait! At the end of the Tribulation, Jesus Christ will descend from heaven with His saints, deal with evil, and establish a thousand-year kingdom, which we call the Millennium. Our Lord will reign from the New Jerusalem, unify the world, transform nations, and give us a preview of eternity. He will also fulfill all the promises made in the Old Testament to the nation of Israel.

Your happiness will depend on where you focus your thoughts. Are you going to serve God with all that you have? Or are you trying to hold on to a world that is falling apart? The Bible tells you where to find peace. Why not seek Christ!

Pastor Tom Emery

When I say, "I am a Christian"

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not shouting, "I've been saved!"
I'm whispering, "I get lost sometimes"
That's why I chose this way"

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I don't speak with human pride
I'm confessing that I stumble –
needing God to be my guide

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not trying to be strong

I'm professing that I'm weak and pray for strength to carry on

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not bragging of success
I'm admitting that I've failed and cannot ever pay the debt

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I don't think I know it all
I submit to my confusion
asking humbly to be taught

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not claiming to be perfect
My flaws are far too visible
but God believes I'm worth it

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I still feel the sting of pain

I have my share of heartache which is why I seek God's name

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I do not wish to judge
I have no authority
I only know I'm loved

THE SHELTERING GOD

The Lord also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble. Psalm 9:9

As we move through the coronavirus pandemic of 2020 and begin to think of its impact and effect, many people are asking what is going to happen next. Some are predicting the worst. "The world will never be the same," they say. "We'll never go back to normal." The pessimism about the impact of this pandemic is almost as bad as the pandemic itself. So, what do you say to those who predict such a dire post-pandemic life?

I cannot tell you all that God is going to do with this time of sheltering. But I can tell you what God has done during and after times of sheltering in the past. And once you review the truth of history as I have described it, I think you will know what He is going to do this time.

God sheltered Noah and his family for one year in the ark until Noah emerged to become the father of all the nations of the world.

God sheltered Jacob in the home of his Uncle Laban when he needed to escape the wrath of Esau, his brother. Twenty years later, Jacob emerged with a new family, new wealth, and a new identity. He became Israel, the new name for God's chosen people.

God sheltered Moses in a remote desert for forty years, but Moses came forth to liberate the Jewish people from Egypt.

God sheltered Naomi in the barren land of Moab until she nearly became bitter. But she and her daughter-in-law, Ruth, traveled to Bethlehem to participate in one of the greatest love stories of history.

God sheltered David for fifteen years after he'd been anointed King of Israel. When David finally assumed the throne, he was a man after God's own heart and gave us many of the Psalms.

God sheltered Elijah by the Brook Cherith, and after the sheltering, He stood alone against the prophets of Baal on Mount Carmel.

God sheltered Jonah for three days and three nights in the belly of a great fish. When the sheltering was over, Jonah went to Nineveh and preached history's greatest revival.

God sheltered Daniel for seventy years in Babylon, where he wrote his Old Testament book outlining the future of God's dealings with His people.

God sheltered Esther while in the palace of Persia's king, and she saved her people from destruction.

God sheltered the disciples in the Upper Room for ten days until the Holy spirit descended in dramatic fashion to form and fashion the Church.

God sheltered Paul in the Arabian desert for three years, and when he emerged from his solitude, he turned the world upside down.

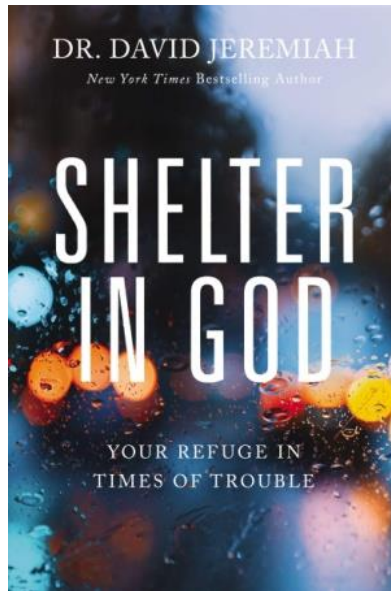

God later sheltered Paul in a Roman prison. By the time the apostle was free, he had written the prison epistles: Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians and Philemon.

God sheltered the apostle John on the Isle of Patmos, and the book of Revelation, the greatest prophetic document of all time, was given to him.

Lastly, and most incredibly, God sheltered Jesus in a tomb for three days, and on the third day Jesus came forth in power to bring salvation to the world.

I don't know all the details about what God is going to do. But what I do know is what He has done! And that is what we can count on. The God who sheltered His people in biblical days won't stop now. So, come what may, I am trusting in the sheltering God to be my refuge. And so can you. You have been a refuge to the poor, a refuge for the needy in their distress, a shelter from the storm, and a shade from the heat. Isaiah 25:4

Shelter in God by Dr. David Jeremiah (Turning Point) will be used by the Women's Bible Study material for September.

The Second Coming of Christ

We believe in the second coming of Christ. His return from heaven will be personal, visible and glorious, a blessed hope for which we should constantly watch and pray.¹

Before He establishes His kingdom on earth, Jesus will come for His Church, an event commonly referred to as the "Rapture." At that time the dead in Christ will be raised and living Christians will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air and be with Him forever.² In this resurrection, those who have died in Christ will have their redeemed souls and spirits united with a body similar to Christ's glorified body. Christians living at the time of this event will not die, but will be changed to be like Christ.³ This expectation is a motivation for holy living, as well as a source of comfort.⁴ No man knows the day or the hour when this will take place.⁵

After the Rapture of the Church, Christians will be brought before the judgment seat of Christ. He will reward them on the basis of the works they have accomplished.⁶ This is not a judgment to determine their salvation but a reward for labor on Christ's behalf.⁷ The Rapture will also inaugurate a period that the Bible characterizes as the "great day of His wrath," "the great tribulation" and the "time of Jacob's trouble."⁸ This time of unprecedented difficulty will affect Israel and all nations. Its purpose will be to prepare Israel for her Messiah.⁹

At the end of the Tribulation, Jesus Christ will return with the hosts of heaven as well as the Church to establish the Messianic Kingdom on earth.¹⁰ His Kingdom will last for a thousand years.¹¹ At this Second Coming, the Antichrist will be cast into the Lake of Fire and Satan will be bound for a thousand years.¹² The nations and their representatives will be judged.¹³ Israel will be restored to her land, never more to be removed.¹⁴ Christ will reign with firmness and equity.¹⁵ His kingdom will be marked by material and spiritual blessing, since the curse upon the earth will be removed.¹⁶

The Messianic kingdom will close with apostasy and rebellion.¹⁷ God will crush this uprising in the last battle of the ages and Satan will be thrown into the lake of fire.¹⁸ All those who rejected the Word of God will be resurrected.¹⁹ They will be judged by Christ and cast into the lake of fire, the place where they will suffer final and everlasting punishment.²⁰

After this judgment there will be a new heaven and a new earth, where righteousness is the norm.²¹ There will be a new Jerusalem and the everlasting presence of God among all the redeemed.²²
