Rev. Thomas Emery
Christ the King/Reign of Christ
“Christ Will Rule as King” – Jeremiah 23:1-6
Salem Presbyterian Church
November 20, 2022

Jeremiah prophetically surveyed the recent history of his people and saw a failure of leadership. While it is still foggy to him, he predictably looks into the future. There he sees a King who would come. He is a Shepherd who would take care of us and guide us. He is a King who would bring justice and righteousness. Finally, He is a God who, when He would bring us into His Kingdom, gives us that deep sense it is the perfect Kingdom that we all yearn.

TEACHING POINTS

POINT ONE – Jesus became flesh and lived out the ideal of God's shepherding of His people.

POINT TWO – We are the faithful remnant, and we are called to care for one another.

POINT THREE – We need to understand what it is to be a shepherd.

THIS WEEK'S VERSE

⁵ “For the time is coming,” says the LORD, “when I will raise up a righteous descendant from King David’s line. He will be a King who rules with wisdom. He will do what is just and right throughout the land. ⁶And this will be his name: ‘The LORD Is Our Righteousness’ (Jeremiah 23:5-6 NLT).

ACTION POINT

In this King that Jeremiah strained to see, we find Christ, the One crucified, raised and set in glory. Why not turn your heart toward Christ and make Him your Lord; He is the King who will bring fulfillment and happiness to those who make Him their Lord by doing His will.
