Welcome and Prayer

Call to Worship: Psalm 1 479

*Hymn: Sandon Welsh Hymnal, 27

Prayer of Confession: O God, we live our lives as best we can—dealing with complicated relationships and situations. We are putting failures and disappointments behind us and moving into each new day with as much energy, goodwill, and optimism as possible. But right now, we seldom have the right answers. We seldom seek Your higher Wisdom in our lives. We move ahead. Forgive us for not asking for Your insight. Fill us with Your Wisdom to live lives of goodness and peace. We ask these things in Jesus' Name. Amen. (Let us now have a moment of silence to offer our prayers of confession).

*Apostle's Creed: I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

“The Virtuous Woman” Proverbs 31:10-31
Salem Presbyterian Church
September 15, 2024

Proverbs advise us to choose the Wisdom of God as our lifelong partner, for only He can bring us an exemplary life of security, honor, and joy. Our passage today is an acrostic poem using each Hebrew letter to exalt the virtues of a figurative wife who illustrates the principles of godly Wisdom; please note that she is the opposite of the promiscuous worldly woman in Proverbs who should best be shunned. As a virtuous wife, it speaks about a way of seeing and interacting with the world as a pathway that comes from God. The text bids us to seek this same divine perspective in our lives. Recent scholarship on the Proverbs passage links the “good wife” (better translated “woman of strength”) with the Lady of Wisdom (Proverbs 1–9).

TEACHING POINTS

POINT ONE – We are warned against the demonic spirit of Jezebel, who is active in this world, leading us astray from God.

POINT TWO – True Wisdom, like Jesus, is to be desired, sought after, and trusted for our good (Proverbs 31:10-12).

POINT THREE – When we come before God in humility and honesty, God draws near to us with forgiveness and renewed blessing.

THIS WEEK’S KEY PASSAGE

Charm is deceptive, and beauty does not last; but a woman who fears [reverences] the LORD will be greatly praised (Proverbs 30:10 NLT).

ACTION POINT

The previous chapters of Proverbs and Psalm 1 (a Wisdom Psalm) tell us to: “seek God and meditate on God’s ordering of the world.” The Book of James continues this look at Wisdom, speaking of this gift as something that comes “from above” and bears “good fruits” in our lives. While Proverbs and Psalm 1 speak of the prosperity that Wisdom can bring us, Jesus and James remind us to embrace this heavenly perspective and to put aside the usual definitions of success and honor to seek the divine rewards on earth and in heaven. Wisdom is compared to the very personification of Christ and of all that we should be in Him. Why not seek godliness and not the false and empty things of this world that do not satisfy us?
